Purpose and type of data processed

Navigation data

The website and all on-line services work through software and informatic systems that acquire, through their functioning, some personal data which transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols.

These informations are not associated to identified interests but, due to their nature, they might allow users' identification through elaboration and association with data collected by third parties.

Information which are comprehended in such data category are: IP addresses or usernames connecting to the website, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of requested resources, the request timetable, the methodology used in submitting the request to the server, the file's dimension, the numeric code giving the status of the server's answer (error, successful, etc.) and other parameters related to the operating system and the user's informatic environment.

These data are used for the elaboration of anonymous statistics on the website use or for controlling its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after their elaboration. Data may be used, after a request of the judicial authority, for ascertaining responsibilities in case of eventual informatic crimes damaging the website.

Data provided voluntarily by the user

To have access to the website registration is required through the communication of personal data, including the email address, in order to verify the user's access and provide matters related to the offered services.

Social media, Newsletter, updates

For the presentation of our work we use the social media channels, which are shown on the EUSAIR Stakeholder Platform webpage. Every social media platform has its own regulation on the elaboration of personal data. For any question or clarification concerning personal data treatment, carefully reading their own privacy policies is strongly encouraged.

By subscribing to our newsletter/updates, you accept your personal data treatment automatically elaborated by the EUSAIR Stakeholder Platform and agreed in the subscription form for receiving newsletters and updates. Subscriptions are provided by Mailerlite, so it is possible considering the chance to consult its own privacy policy on treatment of personal data. Once you are registered in receiving our news, we save the information provided on our database until the unsubscribe to our newsletters/updates.

Data communication

Collected data will be treated exclusively by the personnel and collaborators of Marche Region.

Some data treatment operations may be done also by third parties, to whom Marche Region gives some activities, or part of them, functional to services providing.

Eventual third parties, designed as external holders of data treatment, are subjected to appropriate obligations, given by Marche Region through contract or any other juridical obligation according to the EU law, on personal data protection by operative instructions, referring in particular to adoption of adequate technical and organizational measures, in accordance with art. 32 of the Regulation.

Data voluntarily provided for acceding the website or for subscribing to the newsletters can be shared among national institutions of countries belonging to the "EU Strategy for the Adriatic and Ionian Region (EUSAIR)", for the development of initiatives and activities related to the cooperation project of which the EUSAIR Stakeholder Platform is integral part.

Data conservation

Personal data are treated with automatized and manual tools for the time necessary to reach the goals for which have been collected and in order to guarantee their confidentiality and safety.

Rights of the interested parties

Rights are granted by the Regulation and users can ask to the holder of treatment, via communication to the delegate of data treatment, access to personal data, their correction or their deletion.

Complaints can be done, according to art. 77 of the Regulation, to the Garante per la protezione dei dati personali (guarantor of personal data protection) in Rome.
